Gathering Around God's Word

Prelude

Luyang Liu

(Please prepare for worship as you silently pray and enjoy the Prelude.)

Greetings, Welcome and Call to Worship based on Isaiah 66:12-14

One: God said, "As a mother comforts her child, so I will comfort you; you shall be comforted in Jerusalem.

All: You shall see, and your heart shall rejoice; your bodies shall flourish like the grass; and it shall be known that the hand of the LORD is with his servants.

One: thus says the LORD: I will extend prosperity to her like a river, and the wealth of the nations like an overflowing stream; and you shall nurse and be carried on her arm, and dandled on her knees."

Opening Hymn of Praise 438 'Blest Be the Tie that Binds'

Call to and Prayer of Confession

All: Heavenly Father, The Gospel of Jesus Christ is life to those who call upon His name. Yet, there are still so many who do not believe and even more who have not truly heard. Your Great Commission calls us to share Jesus with our hurting world. Yet, we confess that we miss countless opportunities to bring God's loving message of salvation to others. Forgive us for shying away from the joy of this privilege. Renew in us a heart for the lost. Fill us with Your Spirit, Lord. Open our eyes to creative ways of taking that next step to bless others with the hope of Christ. Hear now our silent confessions...

Mother's Day

Mothers are a precious gift from God, reflecting His love and nurturing spirit. On this Mother's Day, let us honor and cherish the women who have shaped our lives with faith, wisdom, and unconditional love. May we thank God for their presence and seek to emulate their devotion and grace in all that we do.

As you continue to read Mark's gospel (chapter 10-12 this week), please also start reading John's letters — 1, 2, 3 John (1 John 3-4 this week). We will be looking at this unique early Christian community rooted in the remembrances of the beloved disciple John. Why is John's gospel so different from the synoptics: Matthew, Mark and Luke? What is critical about John's perspective of Jesus and the early church? Explore these questions with us in the weeks ahead.
